

MALES

IRELAND

Venue: An Tobar, Navan, Co. Meath
Friday 17th Oct. 7pm to Sunday 19th
Oct. 1pm

Men are searching for real masculine spirituality that speaks to their inner core.

MALE ARCHETYPE WEEKEND

They have a need and longing for the support and nurture of other men on that quest

They want to live from a deeper and more authentic place and seemingly don't know how to get there.

This workshop will allow men to explore the spiritual journey into their real self while acknowledging their difficulties, fears, hurts and weaknesses.

They will be encouraged to reflect on their own spiritual life by focusing on the archetypes of King, Warrior, Lover and Magician and exploring the pathways to maturity and full manhood

Every man who seriously desires to appreciate and grow towards their true masculinity will be energised and challenged by this workshop.

This experiential weekend in the beautiful surroundings of An Tobar will leave you refreshed and renewed.
